FUNERAL OF SARAH BERNHARDT TODAY

Will Be Buried in Famous Rosewood Casket Made 30 Years Ago; No Orations

(By the Associated Press.)
Paris, Mar. 19.—The body of Sarah Bernhardt tonight rested in the famous rosewood casket lined with white satin which was made at her order 30 years ago and in which she was frequently photographed while on her foreign tours.

Abbe Loutil, cure of the church of St. Francois de Sales, where the funeral service will be held tomorrow, said the last prayers over the great artist today. Then she was tenderly lifted from her bed and placed in the coffin, which was taken to the ground floor of the house, where a room has been transformed into a chapel.

Bernhardt is still clad in her white satin dress. Over her face and hair a fine lace veil has been drawn. On her breast is pinned the cross of the Legion of Honor, and around her neck is a ribbon holding the gold locket containing the picture and lock of hair of her son, Maurice, which she always wore.

The casket was closed, except for the upper part, which was left open so that the face could be seen through the veil. This ceremony over, the interrupted passage of mourners was resumed. The casket will be taken to the church tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock and after the services the funeral procession will go to the cemtery Pere La Chaise, where the body will be placed in a simple but massive vault, without decoration and bearing only one word, "Bernhardt."

The Paris city authorities had hoped to hold the services in some great church such as La Madeleine, but Bernhardt's wish was that it be as simple as possible and her preference was for the relatively small church which she attended while in Paris.

There will be no orations at the funeral, in compliance with her wish, but her desire for "many flowers," is certain to be gratified by the public.

London, Mar. 19.—Important decisions were taken today by the railway and building industries which may involve serious stoppages.

The delegates to the conference of the National Union of Railwaymen has decided to support the shopmen in resisting the claim of the railway companies to the right to withdraw the remaining six shillings of war bonus. The delegates have instructed the executive council to call a national strike if necessary.

It is still believed, however, that in the case of the railwaymen some settlement can be arranged.

BLACKMAILER NOW CENTER OF INTEREST

Limelight, Shifting From One to Another in Keenan Murder Case, Now Focused on Identity of Plotter

St. Augustine, Fla., Mar. 19.—The political atmosphere which has so lightly surrounded President Harding and the administration officials composing his vacation party, today seemed to gather a little closer.

One of the contributing factors to this concentration was development that the President, after turning over in his mind the statement recently made in Miami by Attorney General Daugherty, his pre-convention manager in 1920, had come to the conclusion that it might have been better had the statement been withheld at least for the present.

In his statement, Mr. Daugherty, while emphasizing that it was too long until the 1924 campaign to begin talks of politics, predicted that Mr. Harding would be a candidate for re-nomination.

The other factor was the arrival here of Mr. Daugherty. Until today, the President and his principal advisor, in matters of politics, had not met since the latter had issued his statement. Mr. Daugherty came to St.
Augustine in accordance with previously announced plans and is enroute to Washington after a visit to Florida to recuperate from his recent illness. The President and Mr. Daugherty were together only a few minutes today. Mr. Harding stopping at the attorney general's suite on his way to lunch.

The President in his study of the situation is understood by some of those close to him to have in mind, the two remaining years of his administration and to feel that proper solution of the problems they will present should be the subject of more thought than what is to happen to him personally in 1924.

The chief executive, it was learned, is highly appreciative of the motives that actuated Mr. Daugherty in making his statement, and has the greatest confidence in the attorney general's judgment. However, as his feelings have been interpreted by some of his friends; he wants to avoid everything that would tie his actions during the coming months with politics.

Mr. Daugherty has made it plain since giving out his statement that it was not inspired by the President and has been most anxious to relieve the executive of any embarrassment that might have been occasioned. Several of the Republican leaders who were in Florida have acclaimed the Daugherty statement.

Daugherty, appearing voluntarily before Assistant District Attorney Pecora, discussed at length with him his acquaintance with the slain girl and then, avoiding reporters, finished after giving the testimony, the name of the alleged blackmail.

This name Mr. Pecora kept to himself. The only hint that he would give newspapermen was that the man in question already had been questioned by the police in connection with another matter.

SECOND TERM NOW LESS INTERESTING THAN HARD WORK

Harding's Feelings Interpreted as Wishing to Avoid All Political Plans for the Next Several Months

St. Augustine, Fla., Mar. 19.—The

CONCLUSION OF SUIT AGAINST CULT LEADER

Judge Sater Expected to Render Decision on Case Within 25
Days; Day's Testimony
Largely Denials

Grand Rapids, Mich., Mar. 19.— Hearings in the suit of John W. Hansell for a financial settlement with the Isidore House of David, to which a score of witnesses for the plaintiff testified to practices within the Benton Harbor colony, some of them alleging immorality, were concluded in federal district court here today.

A decision by Judge John E. Sater, of Columbus, O., who came here to hear the case, may be expected within 25 days, the court announced.

Hansell, a former member, charged that he was expelled from the colony December 28, 1920, and that property he turned over to Benjamin Farnell, head of the cult, was not returned to him. He sought to recover this, together with pay for his labor as a member which he valued at $25,000.

Fraud was charged on the ground that the organization under the guise of religious teachings, was a business venture.

The defense charged Hansell with misconduct toward women members of the cult and sought to have him wreck the colony and establish a new order at Nashville, Tenn., with the aid of House of David funds, which, it was said, were to be seized during the proposed "revolt."

The hearing ended unexpectedly today when the defense exhausted its list of witnesses.

Testimony of the last day was largely a continuance of denial of defense witnesses of charges against the cult leader and was interspersed with several sharp tiffs between Judge Sater and H. T. Dewhurst, chief of counsel for the House of David.

While most of the witnesses dis-claimed knowing of immoral practices, Dewhurst, on cross examination, asserted he saw Myrtle Turk, a woman member, emerge from the room of Farnell at the house of 3110 one morning at 5:30 o'clock.

Testimony of Joseph Hannaford, a member of the fifth church who said he came to Benton Harbor with 35 prospective members from Australia, caused a clash between Judge Sater and Mr. Dewhurst.

EIGHT HOUR DAY FOR WOMEN DEAD

Bill Buried in Assembly Decks With No Chance of Ever Coming to Floor for Action

Albany, Mar. 19.—Despite all efforts of Minority Leader Charles D.
Donohue and his Democratic delegation in the assembly the eight hour day and minimum wage law for women and minors, and the Walker-Donohue direct primary bill with the program measure designed to create bi-partisan county election boards in up-state counties, were still reposing in lower house committee desks today with no chance of ever coming out on the floor for passage or defeat.

The four measures, disapproved at the conference yesterday of the Republican majority, were voted down, two of them by overwhelming majorities. The count on the labor bills was 73 to 71, three short of the 76 vote majority necessary to carry the motion to have the committee on labor and industry discharged from further consideration of them. Had the motion prevailed the bills would have taken their places on the calendar. The motion to discharge the committee on elections from consideration of the direct primary and bipartisan board bills were beaten on almost a strict party vote, 66 to 78, with only Joseph P. Rice, Kings, Joining the Democrats.

The proposed move of the minority to get the strait bill, designed to abolish the state council of farms and markets out of the committee, was postponed until Monday night when debate on the labor bill and election measures occupied all of the afternoon.

Six Republicans aided the minority in their attempt to bring forth the minimum wage and eight hour day bills. They were W. W. Campbell, Schenectady; Joseph Steinberg, New York; Sol Ullman, New York; C. T.
Male, Schenectady; Edward F. Cooke, Erie, and August Seelbach, Erie.

WILD BATTLE WITH WAVES SAVES MAN

Sick Employee on Crib 5 Miles Out in Lake Erie Brought to Shore by Coast Guards

Cleveland, Mar. 19.—A sick employee of the Erie, Pa., United States coast guard, early tonight brought to shore Holtzworth, who for 24 hours lay a victim of pneumonia on the water works crib, of which he was the keeper, five miles out.

The coast guard power boat, with a crew of eight men and a physician, set out for the crib late today in the teeth of a high wind, after several previous attempts had failed.

As the power boat reached the crib,
John Hugo and Thomas B. Keller, Holtzworth's assistants, tied a rope around the sick man, an he was lowered 20 feet to the ice coated cabin roof of the vessel.

Holtzworth was placed inside the cabin where Dr. Harry L. Baird worked over his patient as the boat buffed the waves on her landward trip.

Half way back to the coast guard station, the boat's engine went bad.
The tug Frank W. which had been held in readiness, steamed out into the lake and towed the boat to shore.
An ambulance, held in readiness, rushed Holtzworth to a hospital. His condition is extremely serious, Dr.
Baird declared.

CAUSE OF HIGH SUGAR PRICES IS NOT TARIFF

Fordney, Co-Author of Present Tariff, Says That With Greater Emergency Duty Price of Commodity Dropped

Tacoma, Wash., Mar. 19.—Existing tariffs on sugar have nothing whatsoever to do with the present high price of that commodity, Joseph W. Fordney, former Michigan congressman and co-author of the Forney-McCumber tariff legislation, declared today.

"The tariff commission which the President has directed to make an inquiry into the sugar situation will find that the present tariff of 1.76 per pound upon Cuban sugar and 2.30 per pound upon other imported sugar, cannot possibly justify the increase of seven cents a pound which has marked the advance in the sugar market in the past few months," Mr. Fordney said.

Even under the emergency tariff of two cents a pound on Cuban raw, which was in effect until the present tariff law was enacted, sugar fell two cents.

"The tariff commission will find that the real reason for the advance lies in the fact that a group of New York or other eastern bankers advanced 14 cents a pound on 1,500,000 tons of Cuban sugar, that they have got control of the new crop and are now manipulating the price so that the consumer, paying the higher prices now quoted, can save them from going on to the rocks."

The Olympia is fast rotting and rusting away in the lagoon at the Philadelphia navy yard. So antiquated now is the famous battle cruiser that one shot from a modern dreadnought would send her to the bottom.

In order that all boxes may present a more satisfactory appearance, it is requested both boxes and their supporting posts be painted white, and that the lettering be done in black, letters about one inch high.

Farm Evaluation Project.

Washington, Mar. 28.—The interstate commerce commission's order for the sale by railroads of interchangeable mileage tickets at reduced rates was protested today, by the American Farm Bureau federation on the ground that it would afford a subsidy to "certain limited and specific classes or groups of people." A rehearing was asked.

"The decision will in effect, form a subsidy to those few persons who make business a travel, such as traveling salesmen," said a brief filed by the federation. "Other persons who travel short distances at irregular intervals will make neither more nor less use of the facilities of travel."

To Stop Drinking on Trains.

In an effort to "curtail provisions drinking of intoxicating liquors on railway trains throughout the country, orders have been issued by Prohibition Commissioner Rogers for the arrest of all persons traveling on trains who are caught drinking by federal agents. Chief Telford of the enforcement staff has been given instructions. It was announced to pass the word to all agents.

TOM STONE SAYS

April is the month of rain. The sky will be the limit.

Jumping of a ten-story building or counting the hours are generally considered signs of bad luck.

Erator brings on hard-bottled eggs, some of which refuse payment on the hats their wives buy.

The annual race between weeds and vegetables is about to start.

Maybe some archaeologist could dig up our last summer's straw bed.

You finish beating your quicker if you imagine the rug is the man who invented spring cleaning.

A loud necktie makes almost as much noise as squeaky shoes.

Perhaps if a gardener tried to raise weeds some vegetables would come up and crowd them out.

You can keep the telephone from disturbing you by not paying the telephone bills.

A boy's pockets hold as much as all the sewing machine drawers.

The energy spent by a couple dancing 24 hours without stopping would wash dishes six weeks.

When you come home and find the parlor on the front porch you know spring cleaning is happening.

A bull went mad in the streets of Philadelphia perhaps because he saw where he was.

Flask-Simon Wedding.

Unadilla, Mar. 28.—(Special).—Miss Sarah J. Simon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Simon, and Amos W. Flisk, son of Mrs. Jennie Flisk, both of Unadilla, were married at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal church, Wells Bridge, on Tuesday, March 27, at 2 o'clock, by their pastor, Rev. H. L. Snyder.

The bride was attired in a traveling gown of tan cation crepe, with picture hat and coat to match. The couple were attended by Miss Mara Simon, a twin sister of the bride, also by Mr. and Mrs. Ora King of Otsego, the latter a sister of the groom.

After a brief honeymoon they will be at home to their many friends at the Flisk homestead.

D. & H. 100 Years Old.

Invitations have been issued for the one hundredth anniversary of the incorporation of the Delaware and Hudson company, which will be celebrated with a dinner in the Hotel Astor, New York city, on April 23. The dinner promises to be one of the biggest affairs of its kind in the history of the state.

On the day following the dinner, the officials of the company and the invited guests will go to Scranton, Pa., and will be entertained at luncheon. They will then tour the oldest stretch of tracks owned by the road, between Carbondale and Honesdale.

Change of Time on U. & D. R. R.

D. A. R. PRESIDENT-GENERAL.

Women in Annual Congress to Center About Election.

Washington, Mar. 28.—Interest in the annual congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution to be held here April 16 to 21, is centering in the unusual election of officers with a three-cornered contest on the office of president-general.

The candidates now in the field to succeed Mrs. George Maynard Minor, whose term expires this year by constitutional limitation, include three prominent members: Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, of Pennsylvania; Mrs. G. Wallace Hanger, of the District of Columbia, and Mrs. William Cunningham Story, of New York, honorary president-general of the D. A. R.

Tickets have been announced partially by the candidates, and there is every indication of an exciting contest when the 2,000 delegates assemble in Memorial Continental hall. Officers will serve for three years with the exception of the vice president-general, whose terms are only for two years.

The presidents-general of the D. A. R. have included notable American women. Mrs. Benjamin Harrison was the first, occupying the office while first lady of the land. Mrs. Adlai Stevenson and Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks, wives of vice presidents of the United States, also have served in this office.

Two picturesque figures will be missing from the convention this year. Mrs. Mary M. Leckwood, known as the "Little Mother of the D. A. R.," who died last fall, and Mrs. John A. Logan, widow of the Civil War general, whose death occurred last month.

ENDURANCE RECORDS.

Although there are no Joe Grimms or Battling Nelsons among the French boxers they show a surprising amount of endurance in one respect. They appear to last a great deal longer than the boxers of any other country. The most surprising thing about Carpentier is the way he has retained his form after so many years of service in the ring. He began in 1907 and was one of the pioneers. Charles Ledoux and Eugene Criqui have records that almost equal that of Carpentier. Ledoux began in 1908 and Criqui in 1909. These men still are regarded as topnotchers in their own country.

Quality is the magic word. It's the rich fragrance and delightful flavor that have made Biwa tea so popular in these parts. Advt. 61.

—The public schools of the city, including the High school, will close at noon today for the Easter vacation, reopening on Monday, April 2. All High school classes scheduled for today will be held this morning, the periods to be a half hour each.
—Yesterday was one of the most severe days of the winter season, a near-blizzard prevailing most of the day. With the chimneys and pipes well-filled from the soot incident to the use of anthracite substitutes many householders experienced fully as much difficulty in keeping houses warm as on any day of the winter. The weather predictions are for warmer weather.

—If you are interested in the preservation of the fish and game of this community; if you wish to help prevent stream pollution; if you are in favor of the establishment of game refuges; if you wish to help the conservation of all our great outdoors; attend the meeting of the Orono Fish, Game and Gun club at the Windsor hotel this evening at 8 o'clock. Arrangements for the entertainment of the State Conservation association's annual meeting this year have to be made at this meeting.
—Professor Williamson Talks.
Professor Williamson, of the Manual Training department of the State Normal school, gave a little talk at the meeting of Troop 2 of the Boy Scouts held last evening. There was a good attendance and his remarks held the interest of the Scouts completely.
Professor Williamson spoke of the benefits following the activities learned through Scouting and especially in the work for merit badges. He spoke particularly of wood working, but emphasized that his talk would be equally true of electricity or of metal working. A training is secured which is bound to be helpful in later years, to a large or lesser degree. Any Scout will learn an appreciation of values which might not otherwise be accurate. And as a final point, a Scout will learn to appreciate the extent to which attention and interest might be turned in an endeavor to fathom the sources of supply and the methods of production of raw materials.

Meetings Today.
The annual congregational meeting of the United Presbyterian church will be held tonight at 7:30. Treasurers reports will be read from all the various organizations. At the close of meeting a picnic lunch will be served. All members and friends of the congregation are urged to attend.

GEN'S $100,000 DAMAGE
Derr E. Ludlum of this city has brought an action in the supreme court against the Pennsylvania Railroad company to recover $100,000 damages as a result of the accident occurring at Stanley, a small station on that railroad near Geneva on August 14th last, when he sustained the loss of his right leg below the knee and in which his wife and his father-in-law, the late Walter Scott, long a prominent attorney residing at Davenport, lost their lives. Mr. Ludlum asks for $100,000 for the loss of his leg and for an equal amount for the personal injuries sustained.
Star readers will recall the circumstances of the accident—occurring when Mr. Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Ludlum and Mr. and Mrs. McFarland of Davenport were away for a summer motor trip. The accident occurred at a dangerous crossing and it is believed that the coroner in his verdict held the railroad company responsible for the accident. Mr. Scott and Mrs. Ludlum died at the Geneva hospital a few hours after the accident. Mr. Ludlum was not fatally injured but it was several months before he was able to leave the hospital and return to his home here.
Mr. Ludlum has placed his case in the hands of Matteson & Matteson of Syracuse and it is expected that the case will be moved for trial at an early date. Mr. Ludlum has recovered his general health but the physical handicap is a serious one, as he was engaged in the automobile repair business and conducted a repair shop here. The outcome of his action will be watched with interest here.
While no definite statement could be secured yesterday it is understood that the executor of the estate of Mr. Scott have also commenced a suit for damages because of the loss of his life.

W. C. T. U. MEETING
Held at the Community House Tuesday with Good Attendance.
Mrs. Harvey Westcott had charge of the program of the W. C. T. U. meeting at the Community house yesterday afternoon for which there was a good attendance considering the weather conditions. The general topic was "Our Papers," principally the "Union Signal," official organ of the union.
The opening Bible reading was in charge of Mrs. Alice VanDyken. Following was a discussion of the "Union Signal," which was very enthusiastic. Three papers followed: "If I were 21 Again," by Mrs. Fred Mordock; "Washing Paper," by Mrs. William Fluke, and a summary by Mrs. Westcott.
Two solos were given in excellent voice by Miss Mable Thompson: "The Silent Voice," and "My Little Sun-Flower, Good Night." Following this a playlet was given by seven boys: Robert Miller, Gerald Bushnell, William Finigan, Raymond Miller, William Westcott, Arthur Westcott and Earl Westcott.
Singing by the union opened and closed the meeting.

His Own Fire Department.
The chimney at the residence of Dr. C. F. Baylis at 5-19 Larn avenue burned out last evening and the attention of the fire department was called to the condition. However, Dr. Baylis assured the men at the fire station that unless something unforeseen occurred he would be able to hold his own.

W. H. Hoffman is installing in his cleaning establishment a modern carpet cleaning machine. The rugs are shampooed and by a vacuum process dried. FISHING SEASON TO OPEN Anglers depending on the opening of the trout season, which is Monday, April 1.
Despite the unfavorable weather conditions prevailing at present, Orono and vicinity trout fishermen, of whom the number seems to be increasing each year, are getting out their rods and reels preparatory to the opening of the season for the speckled beauties on Saturday, April 2.
Many of the streams about this section were stocked last season by the Orono Fish, Game and Gun club and similar organizations at North Franklin, Schoenover, Morr and other places and it is hoped that the season will prove one of the best in recent years.
A new bill is now being considered by the state legislature at present which would open the trout season on April 16 and make it a misdemeanor to keep a trout under seven inches in length instead of six as the present law reads. However, it is doubtful if this law would be put into effect this year.
With an embryo blizzard prevailing yesterday one would scarcely think that the fishermen's thoughts would turn to the streams. However, they were talking about the opening day at some of the business places where fishermen gather and the no burden upon their minds seemed to be the probability of warm weather coming in time to make the fishing good. It was suggested that the rains which have prevailed have sent much of the snow water on its way to the ocean. However, there is much snow still remaining on the hills and in the woods and unless there should follow a period of decidedly warmer weather only the more venturesome of the anglers will sally forth a week from Saturday.

Three Calls for Fire Department.
Miss Margaret Mayer drove her Ford sedan to the fire station yesterday morning shortly before seven o'clock and a fire caused by a short circuit was put out with the aid of chemicals before much damage had been done.

The department was called to 6 East End avenue yesterday about noon to take care of a blaze caused by an overheated stove pipe in the house of George Packer. Little damage was done before the fire was extinguished by chemicals.

A chimney burned out in the house owned by Earl Bitts at 57-59 Maple street at about 8:55 last evening, and the department was called to see that the large sparks which were falling on the roof did not cause considerable damage with the aid of the high wind which was blowing.

Ashes and garbage collected regularly every week. Virgil Smith, Phone 555-W2. advt 16.

MR. RANDOLPH A. MOORE

Funeral of Former Oneonta Minister, at home of brother, A. G. Moore.

The body of the late Mr. R. A. Moore, brief notice of whose death at her home at Whitney Point, appeared in The Star of Wednesday, will be brought to Oneonta on the D. & H. train due at 10 o'clock this evening. It will be taken to the home of his brother, A. G. Moore, 296 Main street, where funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. on Friday, with burial in the family plot at Glenwood. The service will be conducted by his former pastor in Oneonta, Dr. W. B. Shulley, now of Rochester, Pa.

The deceased, a native of New York, was born in 1855, and was a son of James K. Moore and Elizabeth (McLaurie) Moore. He was born December 23, 1855, in Bovina, where his early childhood was spent. Later the family moved to Oneonta, where Mr. Moore attended the Normal school, from which he graduated. Soon after his graduation he was married to John Wright of this city, and their home was for a few years on what is known as the Russell farm at Colliersville. Mr. Wright died in 1907, and about nine years ago she was married to Dr. Moore of Whitney Point, who survives her. Her health had apparently been good, and on Tuesday afternoon she attended a meeting of a church society, returning at 10 o'clock. Her death occurred about a short time after, and was found by her husband.

Mr. Moore was survived by her husband and by three brothers and a sister: James K. Moore of Lake Delaware, Samuel W. Moore of Sacramento, Cal., and A. G. Moore of Oneonta, and Miss Jeanette A. Moore, both of this city. She leaves also several nephews and nieces among them the daughters of a brother, George T. Moore, of Colliersville, who died several years ago. She was from early life a faithful member of the United Presbyterian church, resigning this membership until she removed to Whitney Point, when she transferred to the Presbyterian church of that village. She was a woman of quiet and domestic tastes, devoted to her home and to all who knew her sincerely loved and respected. Her death will be greatly regretted, and sympathy will in large measure be extended to the bereaved family.

FUNERAL OF M. S. ROBERTS

Observed Yesterday of Aged Resident of East Meridith Well Attended.

The funeral of Merritt S. Roberts, which was held yesterday at East Meridith was largely attended by relatives and friends despite the inclemency of the weather and the condition of the roads. A brief prayer service at the home at 12 o'clock was followed by services at the East Meridith Presbyterian church at 1 o'clock. Rev. Willis B. Kilpatrick officiated. In his remarks he called attention to the program in all things which Mr. Roberts had witnessed during his nearly 84 years of life. The church quartet rendered a selection and Byron H. Chesbro sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." The floral tributes included a basket of roses and carnations from the family and a piece from Oneonta Masonic lodge.

The bearers were Merritt S. Roberts, 2nd, Merritt Barnes, Horace Hanford, Charles Hanford, William Burdick, and Edwin R. Moore; all members of the Masonic fraternity. Funeral Tuesday Evening at Home of Daughter, Mrs. Robert D. Marshall.

Mrs. Samuel W. Rose died Tuesday evening at about 11 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert D. Marshall, 34 Main street, as the result of an anemic condition with which she had been suffering since her arrival here last fall to make her home with her daughter. The funeral will be held from the Danforth Memorial Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment in Morningstar cemetery in that city.

Mrs. Elizabeth McLean was born in Utah, November 27, 1858, the daughter of Samuel and Louella McLean. Since their arrival in the city Mr. and Mrs. Rose have celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary, and their married life has been one of complete happiness. Mrs. Rose was a woman active in church work but most devoted to the welfare of her family.

Surviving her are her husband, Mr. Marshall, another daughter, Mrs. V. L. McLean of Buffalo, and three grandchildren, Robert, Marshall of this city, and the Misses Betty and June Neuhauer of Buffalo. All are present in the city.

A STORY OR TWO

The champion absent-minded man, according to the Chicago Tribune, is a professor in Nebraska university. His attention goes to his clock, class minutes, to both sides and to one side only. His wife, poor soul, is very fastidious, and it is not an uncommon thing for her to rush over to the campus bearing some of her husband's starting apparel which he has left behind. One day the dear man slipped on the newly laid classroom floor and ripped his trousers in a very conspicuous place. He had just time to rush home and change and charge back to his class. The wife, having in the meantime stepped out, returned to find her husband's trousers dangling from a bed post. She ran all the way to the classroom with them.

"My boy," said the millionaire, lecturing his son on the importance of economy, "when I was your age, I carried water for a tank of brick-layers." I'm proud of you father," answered his offspring. "If it hadn't been for your pluck and perseverance I might have had to do something of that sort myself."

At a golf club one Sunday morning a member turned up late, says London Tit-Bits. Asked why, he said it was really a tossup whether he should come there that morning or go to church. "And I had to toss up 15 times," he added.

RUNAWAY AT MERIDALE.

Team of Louis Elchler Run Amuck Tuesday, with Slight Damage.

Meridale, Mar. 24.—Tuesday morning after going to the creamery, Louis Elchler left his team of colts standing a few minutes in front of the Strickland store. While Mr. Elchler was in the store the horses evidently concluded to go home. They turned around and left the road just as the owner ineffectually jumped to catch them going below the barn and house of Mrs. Greer and around until they found the road. Their course was where no one would attempt to drive a team, but the rig kept right side up until near the road, where they left the box of the sleigh. When they reached the Aitkins market the rig collided with the Aitkins car and meat box, damaging them to quite an extent. Otherwise little injury was done, owing to the fortunate fact that the road was clear at the time.
